This is Jeff Larsons Journey before taking possession of his 2020 GT 500 Shelby!

It started in 2017, when Ford announced the new GT 500 with the 760 HP engine, 7 speed dual-disk transmission, 16 1/2" - 6 piston brakes!!! One Great Pony!!

I knew this was for me! I ordered the car on July of 2018 and it took two years to get the car!

The very first day the car could be ordered, I was with Matt at Gus Johnson Ford, and the second I could push the button, we did! In one second, there was 1975 cars before me! (My car is ordered!)

The next 2 years brought a lot of anguish! Waiting as Covid set in, and as Ford took their sweet time building the car! During this time thinking I was going to be getting a 2019 car, but with all the delays, I ended up with the 2020 model. I subsequently sold my 2012 GT 500 Convertible to Tom Seep!

In 2020, my friend Jack Haley, who did the transporting of cars from rail to dealers, alerted me that the car was coming! So, I called the Railroad! They would not tell me when the car would arrive, but did disclose that the car was in Idaho! When the car arrived, Jack called and I went down to the Havanna Street bridge to see the car in the rail area! The next day the car showed up at Gus Johnson's (with free delivery). I hurried with the paperwork and now she was mine!

The car has done many shows and International events. She has 14,000 miles to date! Soon, we'll be heading to Prosser for our annual group gathering!

'Stang Of The Month Wanted

Want to see your car featured in the newsletter? It's easy to do. Just send a story about yourself and your car, including any relevant history and interesting details, to the email address below. Don't worry about grammar or spelling, the editor can handle that for you. Include several good quality pictures, or you can arrange to have pictures taken.

Frankly Speaking...

By Kim Frank, President

Having dual responsibilities in the club can be a blessing and a curse. Editing the newsletter as president makes it easy to communicate directly to you in the exact manner I intend to without relaying information through another person, but it leaves me having to write this section after I've already covered everything the club has been involved with for the last month or more. So, I'll use this space to talk about the future. But to talk about the future, I have to refer to the past....

I'm not one to dwell on days long gone, though I do find myself a little nostalgic for simpler times. But, as I was in attendance at the recent Greater Northwest Hot Rod Hall of Fame banquet thinking about what I was going to say when the time came to receive the club's award, I found myself referring to the document that Barry Barton had submitted which contained so much history about the club, and it struck me that it is important to acknowledge the work and foresight of our founders.

I emphasized foresight because it reminds me that they had a vision for the future. They knew what they wanted to do, though they didn't know how it would turn out. There were uncertainties, challenges and failures along the way, but they didn't give-up. Subsequent leaders, board members and regular members built on the vision and the result is where we land today.

But what about the future? What is your vision for the club? How do we survive in a culture that has drastically changed since the days we wore bell-bottoms and Beatles cuts? How do we attract a younger generation to replace us? We can't only count on our kids/grandkids to carry on the legacy. I think we have to do what our founders did. We have to work at it. We need to recruit. We need to embrace new technology whatever difficulty may come, and we need to participate.

Events: IEMC Members Represent at IMM in Vancouver BC

This year's event was a huge success, with perfect weather during the show and 350 entries, many of which were exceptionally well done and prepared.

It was a fun time to visit with friends from other clubs both Canadian and from the USA, plus a chance to make new friends and see cool mods that got the creative juices flowing.

There was also time to visit the local area (which is beautiful) and join in five or six different fun cruises.

The show was Saturday and the awards banquet on Sunday. Three IEMC members received awards that were a cut above what is normally given. Ed Groce a 1st place, Jeff Larson a 2nd and Mike Bishop a 3rd.

This Year's Spokane Group

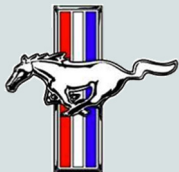

Monday, on the way home a few of us had the pleasure to drive thru a 20-minute downpour that was the hardest one I've ever experienced. Not so bad as it it still was perfect weather Thursday thru Sunday.

Next year's IMM will be in Boise Idaho and promises to be well worth the trip. If you have never been, this one is close by and should be on your short list of special events to attend. There is a link on the home page of our website to check out that has info and most importantly how to make a hotel reservation now. There is a block of rooms with a special show rate that saves a bunch that will go fast. Strongly suggest for our members to reserve now. Keep in mind you can cancel later if need be. The site address is: www.immford.com/IMM48

Let go together next year, have a lot of fun and strut our stuff!

Events: IEMC Honors 1st Responders at Fair

On the 25th anniversary of 9/11/2001, and in recognition of the first responders who bravely sacrificed their own safety for the sake of others after the attacks on New York, Washington DC, and the airliner over Pennsylvania, a solemn ceremony was hosted by the Spokane Interstate Fair. Local Politicians, Dignitaries, and representatives of area Fire and Police departments were on hand to participate in and commemorate the occasion. After a moving invocation and a wonderful rendition on the National Anthem, the Colors were retired and the ceremony concluded with short acknowledgments from some of the dignitaries present.

It has been the privilege of IEMC to have been invited as the "car club of the day" at the fair on 9/11 for many years now, and this year's anniversary made the day more significant and special than any of the previous years.

Due to the large size of the staging at the Main Gate of the fair, the space allowed for cars was necessarily reduced this year, which meant that only 10 club cars were allowed to participate. However, the selected member's cars filled the remaining area nicely and were displayed in a way that drew attention and appreciation from the fair-goers and passersby.

As a bonus for spending the day at the fair, the members were given free access to the fair and 4 additional admission tickets to use at their will throughout the 9-day run.

The official opening of the fair included the firing of a confetti canon

Hopefully, the club will be allowed it's usual full compliment of cars for the 2027 September 11th event.

Events: Annual IEMC Picnic

The chicken was fresh and hot, the sides were delicious and the auction was entertaining and productive. What could better than that for a Saturday in September?

Well. How about adding the opportunity to support and encourage a club member family who lost their home, and a '67 Mustang, in the recent Spokane fires?

Candido and Marla Arellano have found temporary housing in a rental home and are coping with the loss and the daunting process of piecing their life back together after the devastating blaze. And it was the pleasure of the club to present to them a check along with club hat and pen. The funds were raised spontaneously during a recent monthly meeting when Barry Barton brought the plight of the Arellanos to the attention of those in attendance. Once again, the members responded generously, as they always have.

The Edgecliff Park location for the picnic has worked out nicely for the Saturday event for that last few years. The covered pavilion is large enough to fit all the food and most of the people under its cover, and in the case of inclement weather the folks can squeeze in to stay out of the rain. Fortunately, no rain fell at this year's gathering. The wasps didn't respect our sovereignty over the site though, and they seem to really like fried chicken for some reason.

Thanks to Ron West and the activities committee for arranging the outing and bringing the chicken.

The now-traditional "brown bag auction" was as entertaining as ever, as Tom Morris played the starring role of auctioneer by vaguely describing unknown items hidden in bags and boxes in hopes of enticing the highest possible bid. It worked. Many items that started with low bids around $1.50 ended up selling for upwards of $20.

In addition to the brown bag items, some board members provided baked goods that were auctioned separately and which reached higher than expected bids.

The funds raised from the auction are part of the club's philanthropy toward worthy area charities and will be included in the checks that are presented at year's end.

Candido and Marla enjoyed the brown bag auction

Events: IEMC Earns HRHOF Car Club of the Year

A document was carefully written and submitted. Applications were considered. Tough decisions were made. And when all options were considered, the Inland Empire Mustang Club of Spokane, Washington was honored with the prestigious Car Club of the Year induction at the Greater Northwest Hot Rod Hall Of Fame banquet on September 19, 2026.

The award was a culmination of the efforts put forth, and the relationships build over many years by Jeff Larson and others in the club. Months ago Barry Barton sent in a list of many of the attributes that set IEMC apart from the run-of-the-mill car club. The club's charitable giving is a consistent theme throughout the list, and rightfully so. From funding nurseries, schools, camps, students, and community members in need, to providing much needed support to an ailing police chief, the club has stepped up to every challenge with kindness and generosity.

While the club has been active in its support for the community, it also cares for its own as well. Under the meticulous care of Vicki West, our Health and Welfare Committee has served those in our own group who have suffered injuries and sickness, loss and hardship, and various other life challenges, with a card or a phone call to let them know that we care about them.

These things and the "we-are-family" attitude of the club has allowed it to grow from a couple of people with an idea in the early '80's to a club with an association of over 200 individuals. It was a tremendous honor to be recognized for what the club has accomplished over the decades. Thanks goes to all of you and those that paved the road before us for making this club worthy of such an award. Congratulations IEMC!

Strange Vintage Options

We're accustomed to seeing a vast array of "available options" for vehicles these days. They include things like navigation, CarPlay, satellite radio, oversize brakes, special stripes, performance packages, and the like. But, there were options available back in the day that might surprise you.

Did you know that back in 1985, Chevrolet offered a special addition C-10 pickup for the outdoorsman that included a Winchester Model 94AE XTR .30-30 lever-action rifle? Can you imagine what the anti-NRA crowd would think of that today?

Or, how about a vinyl record player? Chrysler offered one for select models back in the mid-fifties. There were special smaller-size records produced under license from select recording studios to fit the player under, or within the dash. You could buy records for the optional players through the Chrysler dealerships.

Ford had its own unique options too. Back in 1971, Ford built its own series of F-250 pickups tailored toward the outdoors crowd by connecting with Ohlsson & Rice to rebrand one of their popular chainsaw models to the Ford tractor division logo. The saw was mounted inside the engine bay in the Drivers-side inner fender. Come to think of it, that might be one of the most practical options, even for today.
